Landscaping & Tree Beauty in Chandigarh

We had Dr. Satish Narula, Senior Horticulturist P.A.U., amidst us in our meeting last Friday, with his educative talk on Landscaping & Tree Beauty in Chandigarh. Dr. Narula used power point slides to elaborate on various aspects covered in his talk. He was introduced to the members by PP Rtn. Harish Sethi.

The learned speaker said that man has learnt the art of landscaping from the Mother Nature; from the mountains, streams, ponds, hills, stones, pebbles and above all, the trees. The latter, however, is least understood. Trees are that element of the landscape that are fixed and cannot be replaced or shifted. It is, therefore, very important to judiciously select the species for different locations.

It is not difficult to plan and plant a tree. What is more important is its monitoring and good care in the later years. Most of the time we do not look up while planting a tree with the result that when it is the time to show its prime, it interferes with overhead lines and the limbs and branches are 'butchered' by crude 'weapons' like axe and 'gandasa'. The irregular cuts invite Inderbela species borers that cause multi-pronged damage to the tree, i.e. by feeding on the bark, making holes in the trunk and branches and also secreting poisonous chemicals in the middle of the tree where it lives, thus damaging the conduction channels and also weakening the limbs that break even with a little-more-than-normal wind velocity.

Other major mistake is done by cutting the limbs from above in one go. As the head of the limbs are heavy due to leaves and branches, they break even when we are midway dragging the bark, causing immense damage to the tree. For this, one should give one-third cut to the limb from below and then start cutting it from above allowing both the cuts to meet midway. Care should also be taken to control the white ants, mealy bugs and other such insects.

Chandigarh is blessed with such a climate that can accommodate the plants of varied origins, i.e. from temperate to the tropical region. The best time to visit Chandigarh to see the city in different moods is during the second week of April. This is the time when the Kusum is at its 'red' best and Tecoma Argentia and Nilli Gulmohur (Jacaranda Mimosifolia) completely covered with deep yellow and blue flowers respectively. The eternal beauty of Erythrina Crista galli is also revealed during this time of the year.

There are many more like Semul or Simble, with very bold red blooms or Erythrina Indica trees full with parrot beak like deep scarlet blooms and Sita Ashok with fragrant bunches of deep red mixed with orange blooms. Many more climbers and shrubs also display their spectacular blooms at that time.

All the members listened to the talk with great interest & applauded the immense knowledge of Dr. Narula on the subject. IPDG Shaju Peter collared our new member Mr. Ashok K. Puri.

A formal vote of thanks by PP Rtn. Ajit S. Gulati concluded the meeting.

Certificates Awarded to Home Care Nursing Trainees

The Home Care Nursing Project of our Club witnessed its finale on Monday, May 4 '09 at Dr. Vikrant Gupta Memorial Foundation Hospital. The Course Completion Certificates were awarded to all the twelve girls who completed the necessary training and education and cleared the requisite examination.

The Chief Guest, Mrs. Meena Ranaut, Chairman – Inner Wheel Distt. 308, lauded the good work done by the Rotary and Inner Wheel Clubs of Chandigarh Midtown, along with Dr. Vikrant Gupta Memorial Foundation. She also suggested that more such projects be taken up in future. Our Club was represented by Pres. Saroj, IPDG Shaju, PP B.L. Ramsisaria & PP R.S. Chandgothia. Many members from Inner Wheel also attended the function, including Mrs. Shashi Gupta, President – I.W. Chandigarh Midtown.

If Titanic was made in India

- 1) There would be members of 10 political parties on the ship, having a gala time, enjoying all the perks.
- 2) There would be a song 'rim jhim barse', and because of security reasons, all security men would be dancing.
- 3) Because no party gets absolute majority, there is a coalition 'Govt' (management) on the ship. The ship Captain (hero) would be from the party having maximum votes & the the party in second position would appoint their lady member (heroine) as second-in-command of the ship.
- 4) The movie would be called "Paisa do vote lo" followed by "log mare to mare, hum to note le chale".
- 5) The ruling party whether they would float in cold or hot water for days, they shall still survive. "Vote (with note!) of confidence" would keep them all fit, fat & fine.
- 6) Leader of the opposition party would not die even after being confronted by a crocodile, as he is given a promise of a ticket for next elections.
- 7) The iceberg would be sent by opposition to teach the ruling party a lesson, but nothing happened as it would hang in the cold storage.
- 8) No one is bothered about the passengers, and no one knows where they are.
- 9) And last but not least, a Commission was set up to find the passengers.
- 10) Three years later, the Commission came to a conclusion that all seats on the ship was reserved for SC/ST/OBC, and not even one of them applied for the seat of a passenger.
