

Installation of President Shivender Parmar & Team 2010-11 Rotaract Club Chandigarh Midtown

Friday, September 17, 2010

Time : 7:00 P.M.

Venue: Hotel President, Sector 26, Chandigarh

Beaming Faces, Enchanting Smiles!

Sheesh Mahal was reverberating with sounds of laughter last Friday, thanks to the extra-ordinary effort by the members of the Cultural Events Committee chaired by Malabika Sengupta, and wisely counseled by Lovy Peter. The Committee met thrice in a period of a fortnight, after conceptualization of the program by the leaders – first at the residence of the chair herself and subsequently at the residence of Anita Kapur and Bir Gulati. Obviously, food served at these meetings by the hosts went a long way inspiring the ladies, as each one is a gracious host.

While the program itself was not a secret, as it was amply clear that the ladies expected that Midtowners entertain them. As announced in these columns earlier, that there appeared to be a mystique around the program. This became amply clear when anchor Mala announced that each Midtowner would have to begin with a one-liner expressing his love for his spouse prior to singing a song. Out came the mystery that we talked about earlier, springing quite a surprise. Minds were whirring.

That was not the catch. It was actually very inspiring to see Sheesh Mahal overflowing. Obviously the Committee had done its home-work for ensuring success. We understand that First Lady Indu Anand, Counselor Lovy Peter, and Chair Mala were on the telephone for the previous three days contacting the spouses to ensure the presence of Midtowners. We are told that though the success was not cent per cent, but on the contrary, the attendance belied their claim. The attendance peaked to a all-time high and added to that was the enchanting smile of the ladies in attendance.

Mrs. Davinder K. Singh who has been unwell for some time now, took a dose of pain-killer just to keep fit and judge the contest at the request of Mala. Mrs. Deepa Bhar was the second judge, along with PP B.L. Ramsisaria. He takes every work seriously, and brought with him three clip boards and sheafs of paper for all the judges.

For an hour and a half it was pure delight to see Midtowners say impromptu one-liners followed by prepared songs. Not all can sing, The challenge of participation, the traditional turn-out, the poise, in spite of non-singers' singing, some pleasant surprises of singing talent in Dr. Sanjay Kalra, and even Vinod Sobti, and above all the sportiveness, made each one a winner. The judges decided to present the two awards sponsored by Lovy and PDG Shaju Peter to Madhu & Suresh Dhawan and to Priya Bhateja. The awards will be presented at the next regular club meeting on Friday, September 17.

Remarked BLR, that he had not witnessed such a program in the club since 1977.

Photographs appearing in this bulletin are those of comparatively new entrants into the club, those of couples who have, or will celebrate golden jubilees of their marriage and those of the awardees.

The event has been videographed and those who would like to have a copy may please contact Sergeant-at-Arms Indrajeet Sengupta.

ARC Shaju at Moga

ARC Shaju was the key note speaker at the Membership Development Seminar of District 3090 held at Moga on Sunday, September 5, 2010 hosted by the Rotary Club of Moga City. Speaking to the Rotarians of 3090, Shaju complimented the District for membership growth last year but invited the attention of District Governor Dr. Krishan Kajal to the disturbingly high number of small clubs with less than 20 members.
