Time: 6.30 p.m.

Daaman Sahib ka Kalaam - an evening of Shayari with Mr. D.S. Bali, Sr. Advocate

In our regular meeting on February 07, 2014 President Deepak Sood acknowledged the presence of PDG Yoginder Diwan and PP Navjit Singh Aulakh. He also welcomed Chief Guest Mr. D.S. Bali, senior advocate, Punjab & Haryana High Court who is a well known personality in his profession and is the father of our Director Youth Service and Secretary Elect Rtn. Salil Bali. Mr. D.S. Bali was formally introduced by PP Gurdip S. Deep as an eminent lawyer, an impressive poet and a renowned social worker well in serving the community as a Rotarian of Chandigarh Midtown.

Rtn. Salil Bali recently returned from Mysore where he had addressed Rotaractors at Rotasia. President Deepak said, "I would like to congratulate Salil for adding another feather in the cap of our club. He is our youth icon, a leader who keeps guiding Rotaractors and Interacts." John C Maxwell has rightly said for the leaders like Salil Bali, "A leader is the one who knows the way, who has been serving Lions International since 1964 in various important assignments. He was Charter President of Lions Club Chandigarh Central in 1982. He is happy that his son, Salil is doing goes the way and shows the way." Salil briefly talked about Rotasia, and would soon share his presentation and experience with us.

Before reciting his shayaris, Mr. Bali brought out the facts about the Urdu Language, which is full of beauty, politeness, respect and grace consisting of literature, prose and poetry. Urdu, a widely spoken language in India, is the twentieth most popular language in the world. It is widely spoken today in many countries including Saudi Arabia, UAE, Pakistan, Nepal, US, Germany, France, Spain, Norway, Netherlands, Denmark, Eastern Europe, South Africa, Tanzania, Thailand, Tanzania, Zambia and more countries.

Urdu is a highly expressive language, and in poetry and songs, it conveys emotions by using simple and gentle words, and even those who do not know urdu can have a feeling of joy and happiness. Its literature can also be used for exact and rational reasoning.

Urdu is very similar to Hindi while speaking but both are totally different in writing form. Urdu is written in the Persian-Arabic script, though it also derives its words from Sanskrit, while Hindi follows the Sanskrit (Devnagri script) characters. It is a very flexible language and has adopted words from English, Hindi, Sanskrit, Punjabi, Persian, Arabic, Turkish and others. The closest relation of Urdu is Hindi. After learning Urdu, it is much easier to speak and understand Hindi but written Hindi will remain a mystery as it is written in a different script.

Many English words are commonly used in spoken and written Urdu. Similarly, Urdu has also contributed a few words to the English language.

Urdu grammar, word construction and sentence structure are very systematic. However, Urdu presents some challenges. Urdu uses formal and informal verb forms and each noun has either masculine or feminine gender. Urdu is a delicate and sophisticated language and many of its words are used to show respect and civility. This emphasis on politeness in vocabulary is known as adab - respect or takalluf - politeness.

Mr. Bali entertained us in his own unique way with his shayari, 'Daaman Sahib ka Kalaam', which he had composed himself right from his college days. He captivated us for over 30 minutes!

PDG Yoginder Diwan, Rtn. Salil Chopra and R'ann Bir Gulati also gave brief but impressive performances of shayari. Rtn. Deepa Bhar and IPP Ritu Singal jointly proposed vote of thanks and that too in 'shayarana andaz'! Mr. Bali, very inspiringly, appreciated the talent in our club.
