Revolution in the Backyard

In our regular meeting on November 21, 2014 President Rtn. R.T.P.S. Tulsi welcomed the Chief Guest Mrs. Sangita Vardhan, and acknowledged the gracious presence of her husband, Mr. Vijay Vardhan, IAS, Addl. Chief Secretary, Govt. of Haryana. He started the meeting with audio video presentation of invocation of 'divine light', "Jo mange thakur apne tey soee soee davay, Nanak das mukh tey jo bole eeha uha such hovay." Translation: Whatever one asks from the Highest may be received, says slave Nanak. Those connected with the Highest can manifest what they utter.

Mrs. Sangita Vardhan was introduced by IPP Rtn. Deepak Sood. She is the Founder-Chairperson of Vatsal Chaya Trust, a registered

She has been awarded by the Chandigarh Administration for Merit in Social Work on Republic Day 2012 and has received the Dainik Bhaskar Pride of Chandigarh Award in Education category in 2014. She has been a member of the School Management Committee of Government Senior Secondary School, Sector 8 for 2010-2012

She is also a resource person with Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan on effective ways for school readiness and integration of Street Children and other children in difficult circumstances. She has also served as panel member of Vision Document, Education Department, U.T. Chandigarh, in 2012-13. Vatsal Chaya has been an MOU Partner with the Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan Chandigarh during the Social Initiative Partnership Scheme in 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012. Vatsal Chaya is an empanelled skill training provider with National Urban Livelihood Mission under Urban Poverty Alleviation Cell, Chandigarh, and is running the largest centre for Out of School Children in GMSSS-8 and also is now the largest NGO in the tricity in the number of underprivileged children it is helping. Vatsal Chaya was awarded on Teacher's Day 2008 for rehabilitation of beggar children, and several more awards and commendation certificates as education provider to underprivileged.

Mrs. Sangita gave an interesting talk supported by a powerpoint presentation explaining how Vatsal Chaya Trust works to enable, educate and empower urban deprived women and children, as a registered philanthropic trust which is committed to helping children and women living in poverty, and give them education, health, livelihood skills and live a gainful life. She has been picking up children from places like in front of KFC, and inspiring them to take to facilities provided by her NGO.

Sangita believes that we are more enriched by what we give than what we accumulate. Though Chandigarh has high literacy rate but those 13 % of population living in in the slum are the ones where we can shift our priorities to take care of the less fortunate. She explained in a nutshell how she takes the support of Government, civil societies, corporate and individuals

She provides flexible options for these children to access school and help them bridge the many gaps they have in learning, hygiene, health, nutrition, social and emotional skills. Her trust collaborates with the government to share school buildings, join and augment ongoing programs so that outcomes for children are more effective.

About 600 children comprising child beggars child labourers, child vendors, rag pickers and girls facing gender bias to school by providing free transport, clothing study related material, skill training, music, art, craft and personality development. There is an equal focus on addressing about issues relating to health, child rights, gender and poverty.
