Journey of an Unrepentant Civil Servant

In our regular meeting on May 13, 2016 the Chief Guest Mr. Robin Gupta, I.A.S. (Retd.), Formerly Financial Commissioner, Principal Secretary, Govt. of Punjab was welcomed by President Kanan Diwan who addressed him as an officer with unblemished service record. Mr. Robin Gupta was formally introduced by PP Rtn. Dr. V.J.S. Vohra. Born in Delhi on 1st October 1948, Mr.

Mr. Robin Gupta, IAS (Retd.)

Robin Gupta joined the I.P.S. in 1972. After a brief stint in the police, he joined the I.A.S. in 1974. He has been posted as Divisional Commissioner on seven separate occasions, a record in the history of the Indian Civil Service. Also, Robin Gupta has the distinction of having served in four states; Bengal, Madhya Pradesh, Haryana and Punjab, apart from a long tenure with the Central Government. His final posting was Financial Commissioner Revenue in the rank of Chief Secretary, Government of Punjab. Widely travelled in India and abroad, an international scholarship holder who studied in the USA and renowned institutions - Bishop Cotton School, Shimla, and the St. Stephens College, Delhi, Robin throughout his career has been writing poetry and prose on diverse subjects ranging from nature, history, art, music, culture, to Sufism. Apart from writing for leading newspapers and journals, Robin Gupta authored 'A Bouquet of Thoughts' published by the Minerva Press, London, in 2002. In the words of Khushwant Singh, "Robin Gupta has writers' ink flowing in his veins." An acclaimed Orator and an author, he also writes for Rotary News. Having travelled far and wide across the country and the world and, with an active role in India's governance and politics, observing it grow and change over the last four decades, he had authored another book, 'And What Remains in the End', the Memoirs of an Unrepentant Civil Servant, published in 2013 by Rupa Publications. This book is also available online through Amazon and Flipkart. It is philosophical, sensitive and laced with gentle humour, except for a few laugh-out-loud instances, as when his trusted staff suggests that he turn his beloved farmhouse, opposite, Sector 25 in Panchkula, into a marriage palace! Dr. Vohra said, "During my recent visit to this beautiful farmhouse I not only enjoyed Robin's affectionate hospitality, but he also offered that our club could have picnic and parties in this attractive place, which is full of greenery and fountains. During his talk he again invited us to his farmhouse.

Welcome address by President Kanan Diwan

Mr. Robin Gupta started his talk by his appreciations for the good work that Rotary has been doing. He briefly gave background of his family in civil service for 140 years, and that after him this family tradition would come to an end.

Through his book he provides a window into that evolution of India, and the part played by civil servants in its advancement. He not only gives an account of a rich life but also a portrait of a country in motion and a testament to those who dedicated their lives to serving their nation. He also talked about the gradual deteriorating moral values in the civil services and how the system plays to the tune of politicians. His observations about officers and politicians are revelatory. The moral fibre is missing.

Mr. Gupta narrated a 40 year fight for justice by Dayawanti, an old lady who became widow before partition at the young age of 16, to get back her property. He finally passed an order, and even helped her to physically take over her small house. But couple of years later she died, donating her property to a mandir.

He was shunted from one posting to another on the whims of higher powers he refused to indulge. But happily he faced the ups and downs of his eventful career. He talked about general decline in quality of our administrative and military structure.

PP Dr. Balram Gupta presents a memento to Mr. Robin Gupta

There was a time when there was no RTI and no media to expose the flaws in the system. Mr. Gupta writes in his book, "The civil servant has fallen victim to the post-independence political dispensation, where his power and postings are determined by his pliability and loyalty. Merit or expertise very rarely has anything to do with an officer's career graph."

Despite these irritants, in his book he says, "Still, I can't deny the sense of satisfaction I feel because the job did give me opportunities to help, to change people's lives." As the title of his book says nothing remains at the end, except your own sense of self satisfaction that you tried to do your job ethically and not fallen prey to the moral degradation.

Mr. Robin Gupta had an interesting interactive discussion with the audience, and Sr. Advocate Rtn. R.S. Sihota even requested for his valuable advice in one of his pending matters.

PP Rtn. Dr. Balram K. Gupta thanked Mr. Robin Gupta for his wonderful and frank talk. Knowing Robin since his younger days, Balram said, "He remains the same in spite of his spinal ailment. I enjoyed the richness in his writings. His journey as a civil servant was full of challenges, and he had been doing justice in true Rotary spirit – a mosaic of service. Thinking and acting positively is what has made Robin's journey successful." Robin immediately responded, "Balram is my teacher."

The guests welcomed in the meeting were: Mr. Jaswinder Singh (PE Amarjit Singh's guest), Mr. Shashikant Adokar, Mrs. Deepali, Dr. Navgeet son of Rtn. Prof. Dr. I.S. Dua, Mr. Robin Gupta's Physiotherapist Dr. Zickey Marya and his long-time aide, Mr. Shukla and other personal staff.

Our heartfelt condolences to the family of PP Rtn. Sarabjit Singh of Rotary Chandigarh Shivalik on his untimely and sad demise on 12th May 2016. May God grant strength to the family to bear the irreparable loss.
